Report of Department of Marathi

Academics:

- Year 2011-12, was a successful year of Dept of Marathi. We continued with the tradition of 100% result at TYBA level after a year's gap. 30% students ranked in First Class.
- Dr. Jyotika Ozarkar was awarded Ph. D. by University of Mumbai and her thesis was recognized as the Best PhD thesis, in Marathi by the University & she was awarded with most prestigious award: Late Prof. A. K. Priyolkar Scholarship in June 2012.
- Dept of Marathi was entrusted the responsibility of organizing University Level Workshop for Teachers teaching to MA class, by the University, where 49 scholars, teachers attended. The workshop was organized on 15th September 2012. Workshop was inaugurated by lighting up the lamp near Amma's Statue & garlanding Amma's Statue at the hands of Dr. Saroj Patankar, Chairperson, BOS, University of Mumbai & Dr. Harishchandra Thorat, a veteran Critic in Marathi. Dr. Padma Deshmukh, Vice Principal, Prof. Ashwini Gokhale, Vice Principal were present at the occasion. Inaugural function of the same was chaired by Dr. Padma Deshmukh, VP in absence of the principal. Dr. Jyotika Ozarkar, Head, Dept of Marathi delivered welcomes address and also welcomed the guests with a rose flower. Dr. Padma Deshmukh honoured Dr. Saroj Patankar with a shawl & coconut; Dr Harishchandra Thorat was honoured by Prof Ashwini Gokhale with a shawl & coconut. Dr Saroj Patankar thanked the college in her opening remarks & she explained the credit system & opinion of BOS to the audience. Dr. Deshmukh & Prof. Gokhale welcomed all with small speeches. Prof. Nitin Arekar was master of ceremony. Resource persons submitted their presentations well in advance, so that we could distribute the photocopies of the same to all participants. Mode of operation of the workshop was oral presentation, with the help of power point; followed by Q-A Session. It was a very healthy discussion where participants discussed on the methodology of teaching under credit based system. It happened to be a completely new exercise to all the participants. Teachers were accepting the new pattern of teaching & learning
