JOURNED AS THE
THE SOLAR GANDHI OF INDIA

Solar Chulha Challenge by 1992

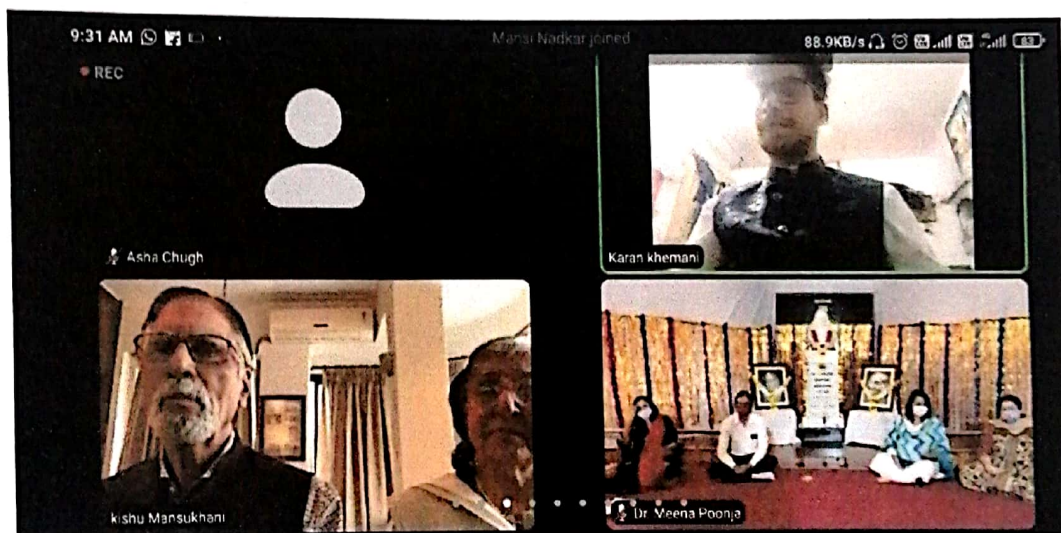

Dr. Chetan Singh Solanki
An Academician, Researcher, Innovator,
Social Entrepreneur, Educator,
A Professor with focus of Energy for rural and engineering R&D and currently in a 11 year long journey from ESB, now stays in a solar home and on a mission to promote clean energy

The global climate is changing and posing risk to ecosystem, human health and economy, via flooding, droughts etc. Mitigating and adapting to climate change are key challenges of the 21st century. At the core of these challenges is the question of energy –our overall energy consumption and dependence on fossil fuels. Large amount of green house gases are released by burning fossil fuels for electricity generation, transport etc. We need to embrace clean energy sources... Energy Swaraj is wherein locals generate their own energy, can have a robust livelihood and economy based on it, is linked to Gandhi's idea of local self reliance and sustainability.

Join us to hear Prof Chetan Solanki, who hails from a small remote village in Madhya Pradesh, studied under the light of kerosene lamp in childhood and now committed on a mission to provide 'clean light' to all...
