Report on “Research Avenues & Methods in English”

State Level Two Days Workshop

On 28th & 29th January, 2019

The Department of English, R. J. College (Autonomous College), Ghatkopar organized a two-day workshop on “Research Avenues and Methods in English” on 28th and 29th January 2019, from 9 AM to 5 PM for the post graduate students of the University of Mumbai on the topic of Research Avenues and Methods in English”.

It was attended by 19 students of MA Part II of the Department of English, Smt. Chandibai Himathmal Mansukhani College, Ulhasnagar.

Dr. Pratima Das Head, Department of English of Smt. Chandibai Himathmal Mansukhani College, Ulhasnagar and Dr. Neeta Chakravarty, Head Department of English of R. J. College (Autonomous College), Ghatkopar were present there on both days. Prof. Maria Shaikh from R. J. College was the convener of the program.

On 28th January, 2019, the session was inaugurated by Dr. Sushila Vijaykumar at 9 am. The proceedings were followed as per the schedule:

Session one: Research Thinking and Topic Identification by Dr. Dinesh Kumar

Session two: Abstract writing by Dr. Sunila Pillai

Lunch break

Session three: Research in English Literature by Dr. Mohini Gurav

Session four: Practical Session – Topic writing (Mentored by Resource Persons)

Proceedings on 29th January, 2019 were as follows:

Session one: Emerging Areas in Literature Research by Dr. Pratima Das

Session two: Citation & Documentation by Dr. Dinesh Kumar

Lunch break

Session three: Practical Session – Abstract writing (Mentored by Resource Persons)

Session was concluded by the valedictory address by Dr. Shivaji Sargar.

It was a very fruitful activity for the post graduate students because they have to write their own thesis in Project based course of the MA English Part II and this workshop gave them a hands-on training in the practical aspects of the same.
