

Alumni Committee Report 2017-18

The Alumni of Smt. CHM College are spread all over the globe. Many of them have splendid accomplishments to their credit in their personal and professional fields bringing laurels to their Alma Mater. CHM Alumni Association is a forum for the Alumni to be in direct link for the development of self and the college.

With the aim of reinforcing the bond between Alumni and the college, the association has been striving hard to achieve the goal. In the year 2017-18, following events were organised by or through Alumni Association:

1) ChandiUtsav 2018:

ChandiUtsav- "Indradhanush" is an annual college fest. This annual fest is a perfect metaphor for energy, vigour, enthusiasm, passion and fervour that is displayed by the students. This year, it was a two-day cultural extravaganza held on January 23rd and 24th 2018. Students participated in a large number and made it a grand success. For the two days number of activities in three categories were organised viz.: Literature, Stage Performances and Artistic Touch. Inauguration of the fest was made on first day wherein Chief Guest was Mr.

AshishChanchlani, who is the Alumnus of CHM College. He is the Winner and the You Tuber.

Today he is the most popular personality in the town with fan following of youth. He has been awarded as the Youth Icon of the town. He encouraged the audience students to adopt perfection and discipline in their work, which is the mantra of success. Year after year, ChandiUtsav is celebrated with much enthusiasm and zeal among the students and staff of the college. Even this year, the annual fest left the memorable prints in the hearts and minds of all. The two day event was really a time for all the students and staff to come together, enjoy and freshen up!!
